

Critical Literary Studies
Vol. VI, No. 1, Serial Number 11, April 2024

The Nomadic Distribution in Virginia Woolf's Orlando: A Deleuzian Reading	1-18
• Seyyed Mohammad Marandi; Zohre Ramin; Fatima Sadat Yahyapoor
Narrative of Obsession: Manipulated Identities, Labyrinthine Emotions in Iris Murdoch's A Word Child	19-40
• Nazila Herischian; Seyed Majid Alavi Shooshtari; Naser Motallebzadeh
A Narratological Analysis of the Strategic Affective Enlistment in Hardy's Major Wessex Novels	41-63
• Saeid Behnoud; Negar Sharif; Zahra Bordbari
Beyond the Chilly Chariots: A Contemplation of Nothingness in Wallace Stevens's Harmonium	65-84
• Elias Naqipour; Ali Taghizadeh; Pedram Lalbakhsh
Trauma and Treatment in Gillian Flynn's Sharp Objects through Judith Herman's Theories	85-100
• Mehrgan Rezaeian; Behzad Pourgharib; Abdolbaghi Rezaei Talarposhti
Cyborgian Virtual: Hybrid Subjectivity in William Gibson's The Peripheral	101-119
• Najaf Ali Babazadeh; Razieh Eslamieh; Ayoob Dabiri
Revisiting Foucauldian Discourse Analysis Approach: Surveillance and Individuality in Tom Wolfe's The Electric Kool-Aid Acid Test	121-136
• Iraj Soleymanjahan; Hiwa Weisi
Domestic Violence in Allende's Violeta	137-157
• Vida Rahiminazhad; Haider K. AL-Mosawi
Re-reading the Position of Women in Islamic-Iranian Mystical Texts (With Reference to Attar and Rumi's Works)	159-178
• Najmeddin Jabbari
Representation of Duty as an Object of Manipulation in The Bone Clocks and The Buried Giant	179-193
• Hamideh Vesalifallah; Roya Yaghoubi
Communicative Ethics as the Aura of Post-Postmodern Morality: A Study of Amy M. Homes' This Book Will Save Your Life and Philip Roth's Everyman	195-209
• Fatemeh Esmaeili; Narges Montakhabi Bakhtvar; Farid Parvaneh
The Motivational Self-System of Learners of Kurdish as a Heritage Language: A Mixed-Methods Study	211-236
• Mohammad Aliakbari; Golchin Amani
Abstracts in Persian	237-248